MELISSA SCHAUB

Head Coach
Fifth season

Melissa Schaub has led the Ohio State program into the upper echelon of women's tennis. The team enters 2016 as defending Big Ten regular season and tournament champs and has appeared in each of the last three NCAA Tournaments.

The two-time defending Big Ten Coach of the Year, Schaub spent her first campaign at Ohio State (2011-12) as an assistant coach before she was named interim head coach for 2012-13 and then took the reigns as the head coach beginning in 2013-14. Her record at Ohio State is 80-33, with a 31-12 Big Ten regular season mark, entering 2016-17.

The 2016 campaign was arguably the best in program history. Among the highlights:

- 11-0 Big Ten record to win the program's first conference championship
- First conference tournament title for the program
- 31-3 overall record, setting school record for wins in a season
- No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament, leading to the first NCAA home games for the program
- Three NCAA wins to advance to the quarterfinals for the first time
- Four Buckeyes earned First Team All-Big Ten honors
- Francesca Di Lorenzo became the third All-American in program history, was named both Big Ten Player of the Year and Freshman of the Year and won the ITA National Indoor championship for the program's first ITA title
- Ohio State had NCAA Championship qualifiers in both singles and doubles
- Earned the first No. 1 ranking in program history and ended the year a program-best sixth

The program has also been outstanding in the classroom during Schaub's tenure. Since 2013 the Buckeyes have received 26 Ohio State Scholar-Athlete honors, 17 Academic All-Big Ten awards, 12 ITA Scholar-Athlete mentions and five Big Ten Distinguished Scholar accolades. The team has earned NCAA Public Recognition Awards, given to teams scoring in the Top 10 percent in their sport based on multi-year Academic Progress Rates, during each season Schaub has been at the helm.

In the community, the Buckeyes give back by volunteering with a number of organizations, including Buddy Up Tennis and Stephanie Spielman Fund for Breast Cancer Research.

In 2014-15 the Buckeyes had a then-school record tying 20 wins (with just seven losses) and had 11 shutouts during the year. The Buckeyes finished second in the Big Ten, posting a 10 wins in league play, and advanced to the Big Ten Tournament championship match for the first time since 2004. The squad ended the year ranked 21st, the first time in the Top 25 of the final poll since 2000, and reached a high of 17th during the year to match the program best.

In the 2013-14 season, Schaub led the Buckeyes to a 19-9 record, one win shy of the program record at the time (20), en route to a third-place finish in the B1G and the squad's first NCAA tournament appearance since 2010.

Schaub, a Lexington, Ohio, native who had a standout collegiate career at Tennessee, was on the coaching staff at Middle Tennessee State for five seasons, including one as head coach (2010-11), prior to joining the Ohio State staff.

Schaub played four years for the Tennessee Volunteers (2003-06), where she was ranked as high as No. 2 nationally in doubles and the squad reached the No. 4 spot in the national polls during her career.

She was an All-American and second team All-SEC selection as a freshman, finishing the year ranked sixth nationally. Although struggling with injuries as a sophomore and junior campaign, she posted 25 dual-match doubles wins. As a senior, Schaub played at Nos. 2 and 3 singles before moving into the No. 1 position in early April where she went 3-0 in the SEC tournament. She was ranked nationally in doubles as a senior with partner Vilmarie Castellvi and ended her career with 70 doubles wins to rank in the Top 10 in program history.

Schaub was a member of the SEC Good Works Team and SEC Academic Honor Roll and was the recipient of the athletics department's "No Guts, No Glory" award as a senior. She graduated with a degree in psychology in 2006.

Schaub was a two-sport athlete at Lexington High School, playing both tennis and basketball. She won the Ohio state singles title as a senior in 2001 when she led her squad to a third-place finish at the state tournament. She was a part of four conference and district championship squads during her career.

Schaub's brother, Ty, played for the Ohio State men's tennis team and served as a captain as a senior when the Buckeyes were the NCAA runner-up. He is currently the assistant coach at San Diego. Her sister, Courtney, was on the tennis team at Cumberland University from 2008-12.

She is the daughter of Ron Schaub and Mindy Cooper. Her father, who played tennis at Ohio University, is the teaching pro at Lakewood Racquet Club and boys and girls tennis coach at Lexington High School.

ADAM COHEN

Assistant Coach
Third season

Adam Cohen, who joined the Ohio State women's tennis program as an assistant coach in September 2014, has been part of two of the most outstanding seasons in program history.

Cohen was tabbed the 2016 ITA Midwest Region Assistant Coach of the Year after a record-breaking season for the squad. The team won both the outright Big Ten regular season championship (11-0) and the conference tournament title. The Buckeyes were the No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament, hosted NCAA matches for the first time and became the first Ohio State team to reach the quarterfinals. Individually, four Buckeyes earned All-Big Ten honors and the team had NCAA singles and doubles qualifiers for the first time since 2001. Francesca Di Lorenzo won the first ITA title in program history, became the third Buckeye All-American and was named Big Ten Player of the Year and Big Ten Freshman of the Year.

During Cohen's first year (2014-15), the Buckeyes were 20-7, earned an at-large berth into the NCAA Tournament, finished second in the Big Ten and reached the B1G Tournament championship match, ending the year ranked 21st.

Cohen was the head men's tennis coach at Binghamton University prior to coming to Columbus, leading the Bearcats to seven-consecutive America East conference titles in eight years.

In 2014, Cohen, a five-time America East Coach of the Year, guided his squad to a 16-11 record with a 5-0 ledger vs. conference opponents and helped coach Binghamton's sophomore standout to repeat accolades as America East Player of the Year. In 2012-13, he was honored as the ITA Northeast Region Coach of the Year for the second time after leading the Bearcats to their ninth NCAA appearance in 11 years. In 2009-10 the Bearcats were ranked as high as a program-best 43rd and ended the year ranked 49th, with Cohen tabbed the ITA Northeast Region Coach of the Year. The program had 34 ITA Scholar-Athletes in his last five years combined, including eight in 2014.

After serving as an assistant at University of Louisiana-Lafayette (1997-98), where he helped guide the squad to a Sun Belt Conference title and NCAA bid, Cohen joined the coaching staff at his alma mater, Minnesota, and the Golden Gophers made seven NCAA tournament appearances in eight years, including a trip to the Sweet 16 in 2000. The team was ranked in the Top 25 consistently during his tenure and finished the 2003 campaign ranked 10th. Cohen joined the Binghamton men's tennis team as head coach for the 2006-07 season.

A standout for the Golden Gophers, Cohen played his final two collegiate seasons at Minnesota, leading the program to back-to-back Big Ten titles in 1994 and 1995. He began his collegiate career at Southern Illinois - Edwardsville, where he helped the team finish seventh at the 1993 NCAA Division II Championship.

A native of Buffalo, Minn., Cohen earned his bachelor's degree in history from Minnesota in 1997. He and his wife, Sara, have a son, William.

SARAH TAYLOR

Volunteer Assistant Coach
Second season

Former professional tennis player Sarah Taylor joined the Ohio State women's tennis staff in 2014-15 as the volunteer assistant coach. Taylor spent six years playing on the WTA Tour and was ranked as high as No. 68 in the world.

In her pro career, which spanned from 1999-2005, Taylor played in four U.S. Opens and the Australian Open three times, as well as appearances at Wimbledon and the French Open. She earned a silver medal at the 2003 Pan American Games and was the winner of seven USTA/ITF pro circuit singles events. She reached the semifinals of WTA tour events in Bali and Tokyo, defeating former No. 1 Arantxa Sanchez Vacario. In 2003, she advanced to the fourth round of the NASDAQ-100 Open, defeating two Top 20 players. Taylor was a member of the U.S. National Team from 2001-04.

Taylor began her coaching career as the volunteer coach at Harvard in August 2004, spending a season with the Crimson. She was a tennis coach for two years at Hollow Rock Racquet Club in Durham N.C., before serving as a USTA Coach in Boca Raton, Florida. With the USTA, she coached, mentored and oversaw the development of top female prospects 18 and under and captained all 18 and under national team events, including the Junior Fed Cup.

Taylor earned her bachelor's degree in psychology and philosophy from North Carolina in 2009 and has a master of science degree in experimental social psychology from Ohio University, where she is a doctoral candidate. She is an instructor and graduate assistant at OU in the experimental social psychology program.

CARRIE SMITH

Director of Tennis Operations
Ninth season

Carrie Smith has been the director of operations for the Ohio State women's tennis team since 2007-08 and began working with the men's program as its director of operations as well in 2012-13.

Smith serves a multitude of roles for the team, from organizing travel arrangements to overseeing alumni, community service and fundraiser programs. She facilitates summer tournaments and camps for Ohio State, including the Campus Showdown and summer ITA competitions.

Tennis has been a lifelong passion for Smith, and she is currently a member of four adult teams at the Olympic Tennis Club and Racquet Club. She is also a USPTA certified teaching pro.

*1995: single elimination play in championship on day one, double elimination for remaining matches

1996-98: began use of single elimination format for Conference championship; team champion declared Conference champion

1999-05: regular season winner declared "Big Ten Women's Tennis Regular Season Champion" and championship used to determine "Big Ten Conference Champion" and NCAA automatic qualifier; in final team standings, championship winner placed first and championship runner-up placed second (regardless of record); final conference record determined by following formula -- regular-season record plus any upsets in championship. If a lower seed upsets a higher seed, the lower seed will gain a win while the higher seed will incur a loss. However, a win over a team with an identical record will not count as an upset regardless of seeding.

2006-08: Final team standings to include only results from regular season Big Ten matches

2009-present: regular season winner declared "Big Ten Champion" and tournament used to determine "Big Ten Tournament Champion" and NCAA automatic qualifier.

2015-16 YEAR IN REVIEW

- Ohio State was 31-3 on the year, the first time the program had more than 20 wins in a season. The squad reached the NCAA Tournament for the third straight time and the 13th time in program history.
- The squad won the outright Big Ten regular season title with an 11-0 record and claimed the first conference tournament title in school history. In the regular season the Buckeyes allowed just one team point (doubles vs. Northwestern) and outscored their conference foes 69-1.
- The team hosted NCAA Tournament games and advanced to the championship site for the first time, where it posted a Round of 16 win, reaching the quarterfinals for the first time.
- The Buckeyes were ranked in the Top 6 since early February, including time at No. 1 (first reached Feb. 29).
- Buckeyes competed in the NCAA singles and doubles tournaments. Francesca Di Lorenzo advanced to the Round of 16 in singles (the second Buckeye to reach the Round of 16) and Miho Kowase and Anna Sanford fell in a super tiebreaker in their first round match.
- Francesca Di Lorenzo became the third Buckeye, the second in singles, to earn All-America accolades. She won the USTA/ITA National Indoor Championship in the fall, the first ITA national title in program history. She was ranked in the Top 5 all spring and was the first Buckeye to reach the No. 1 spot. She was named both Big Ten Player and Freshman of the Year and set the program record with 37 singles wins. All four of her losses during the spring came in three sets, with three of the four to Top 15 ranked players.
- Miho Kowase and Anna Sanford won the ITA Midwest Regional title to claim the first regional title in program history. They defeated teammates Sandy Niehaus and Ferny Angeles Paz in the championship match.
- The squad won a program-record 16 matches in a row before falling in the NCAA quarterfinals.
- The Buckeyes were 15-0 at home in 2016 and enter 2017 on a 16-match home winning streak.
- For the seventh year in a row, the program was recognized by the NCAA for academic success, as the squad is in the Top 10 percent nationally in APR.
